

ACCEPTANCE OF INTERNATIONAL AREA STUDY POLICIES,
Please Read Carefully and sign.

Academic/Policies/Procedures:

All University policies including those involving academic honesty, sexual harassment, drug and alcohol usage, etc., are applicable to the students in the international study programs offered by the University of Redlands, School of Business. While abundant opportunities exist for students to explore outside the classroom, the focus of the Program is academic. Students should consider the program's educational requirements when planning self-directed sightseeing or arranging guest participation.

Grading:

The grade you earn for international study courses will appear as a University of Redlands course on your transcript and will be calculated into your grade point average.

It is your responsibility to coordinate with University of Redlands faculty leading the international study course regarding all curricular requirements, as outlined in the course syllabus, both before your departure to overseas and upon returning to campus.

Student's Responsibility:

With the return of this form I notify you of my acceptance of the University's offer of international study. I do so with the knowledge that it is my responsibility to work out the academic implications of this program of study with the instructors whose class I might miss while overseas.

1. Space Reservation Deposit: The $500 space reservation deposit is non-refundable and is due 3 months prior to departure or before the trip fills up. The space reservation deposit will be applied toward the international program fees (initial).
2. Airfare: The estimated round trip airfare is based upon students traveling as a group. If you do NOT plan to travel on the scheduled flights or dates, you must notify the International Programs Assistant via email of your alternate schedule at least 90 days in advance of the trip. All students are personally responsible and liable for any additional cost of airfare and ground transportation incurred as a result of NOT traveling with the group.
3. It is your responsibility to make arrangements for and cover the cost of getting from your point of departure (residence) to the Los Angeles International Airport (LAX).
4. Housing/Hotels: The University of Redlands has contracted with our overseas partners for housing. Room assignments will be prioritized with consideration for any special needs or requirements, (i.e. medical, disability, etc.). Please notify Christine Mee, (909-748-8748) of any lodging limitations. Rooms and prices are based on double occupancy.
5. Your financial arrangement with the University for International Study requires payment of University of Redlands tuition plus the cost of travel. Costs for the international study program include flights, hotel and or ship cabin costs, tour fees, lecture fees, excursion transportation, etc. All payments will be submitted to the University of Redlands only. (initial)
